

Growing up in Australia

Australia is my home. I love that we are a free country. We can ride our bikes down to the shop and walk in the bush, looking at native animals. We also have the freedom to vote.

I love it when it's Australia Day and our friends and family come together for a BBQ.

I love it when school holidays come because we go to Brisbane to see Uncle Frank and the rest of the gang.

Growing up in Australia is great because we get to do lots of things that people in other countries can't do. That's what I love about growing up and living in Australia.
